Sponsorship Opportunities

Sponsorship: Which level is right for you?

Does your company want to reach more buyers and influencers in the Wisconsin Park and Recreation Association, and at the same time feel good about the support you provide to enable WPRA to achieve its mission? Show your support by investing in the Sponsorship Program!

WPRA offers a variety of ways for your company to have constant exposure to members throughout the year. Through our Sponsorship Program you'll reach over a thousand professionals among hundreds of Wisconsin agencies.

This mutually beneficial program is constructed to offer the largest, most exclusive offers to the companies supporting at the highest levels. At the bronze level, a commitment of $2,500 will save your company over 25% annually while giving you exclusive access to members not available outside of this program. Commercial membership, a booth at the trade show, and advertising in the IMPACT Magazine, PRMonthly, and Membership Directory is included at every level of sponsorship.

*Review the grid for a summary, and the rest of this brochure for more details.
Please contact the office to sign up in 2025 and we'll be happy to help identify which level is right for your company to have optimal exposure to the members of WPRA.*
